

BHASKAR LAW COLLEGE

(Approved by the B.C.I & Affiliated to Osmania University)

Prof. (Dr.) Kama Raju Chitrapu

Principal

Prof. (Dr.) Kama Raju Chitrapu, an eminent scholar and transformative academic leader, assumed charge as Professor and Principal of Bhaskara Law College, Moinabad, Hyderabad, on 26 August 2026. Affiliated with Osmania University, the College now benefits from his unparalleled blend of intellectual depth, institutional vision, and policy acumen. With an LLM and Ph.D. from NALSAR University of Law, Post-Doctoral Research at the Indian School of Business, and advanced training under WIPO, UNHCR, and DoPT, he has carved a unique niche at the intersection of law, governance, and innovation. His career spans founding-dean roles at multiple startup law schools, senior academic stewardship at Tech Mahindra University, and pioneering contributions to the Confederation of Indian Industry's Technology Division & IPR Unit, as well as the T-Hub innovation ecosystem.

Beyond academia, Prof. Chitrapu has worked with APTDC–CII and was closely associated with the Ministry of MSME in setting up Intellectual Property Facilitation Centres (IPFCs) across India, a flagship initiative that empowered MSMEs to harness creativity and innovation for global competitiveness. His expertise in RTI, DPDP Act interpretation, and IPR outreach has positioned him as a trusted legal consultant to the Telangana Council of Higher Education. With a professional network spanning Apex Judiciary, senior bureaucrats, and industry captains, he exemplifies the rare synthesis of scholarship, administration, and public service. At Bhaskara Law College, he is spearheading the 2026–2036 strategic roadmap, embedding his hallmark of high-impact academic governance, global outlook, and transformative leadership to elevate the institution into a beacon of legal education.
